Summary

This code of conduct summarises the procedures of GDUK Door Solutions Ltd, including employees and those acting on our behalf, do not facilitate tax evasion.

Statement

Tax evasion, tax fraud and attempts to facilitate such actions are antithetical to the ethos of GDUK Door Solutions Ltd . These crimes cheat the government out of revenue it needs to create the conditions for our business to flourish. It amounts to little more than stealing from our customers and from ourselves. GDUK Door Solutions Ltd is committed to no tolerance for tax evasion, and we are committed to a dedicated programme to counter the risk of any employee, contractor, business partner or representative of our company engaging in the criminal facilitation of tax evasion.

We expect everyone who works with our company to fully comply with their tax obligations. We will not tolerate, permit or allow any person associated with us to engage in the facilitation of tax evasion or tax fraud by any of our customers, suppliers, business partners, contractors or employees anywhere in the world.

GDUK Door Solutions Ltd is committed to complying in full with the tax laws everywhere we operate, and we choose to do this by respecting not only the letter of the law, but the spirit of the underlying tax policy intent. We aim to pay the right amount of tax at the right time, on all the eligible profits we make.

Accountability & Governance

The board of our company has approved this policy and our commitment to no tolerance of tax evasion or its facilitation. This director is responsible for monitoring compliance with this policy and is supported by his senior manager.

Employee responsibilities

Our code of conduct sets the standards of behaviour we expect all employees to adhere to. Our employees have a responsibility to take reasonable action to prevent harm to GDUK Door Solutions Ltd and we hold our employees accountable for their actions and omissions. Any actions that breach the Criminal Finances Act and the tax laws of wherever we operate brings harm to [enter company name] and will not be tolerated.

You are responsible for properly following GDUK Door Solutions Ltd policies and procedures. These should generally ensure that all taxes are properly paid. If you are ever asked by anyone either inside or outside our company to go outside our standard procedures, this should be reported without delay, as someone may be attempting to evade tax.

Any employee who has any concerns relating to any potential breach of this policy must immediately follow our whistleblowing policy and report the matter without delay.

Training & Communication

All employees must familiarise themselves with our prevention of tax evasion training and ensure they have the appropriate level of knowledge for their specific roles. All employees must take into account tax evasion-focused communications from senior management and be aware of the latest internal information regarding prevention of tax evasion.

High risk areas for our business include:

- Accounts payable
- Accounts receivable
- Payment to contractors

The key factors which may increase risk include:

- Cash transactions
- Transactions in certain regions of the world.

Accounts Payable

- Only contract with businesses which have good reputations.
- Ensure all information on an invoice is correct and as expected.
- Have the full contact details of the supplier and ensure it matches to where the payment is being made.
- Specify in contacts that VAT and other sales taxes must be added to invoices and have written reasons why such added taxes are not required.
- Do not pay suppliers in cash. If cash payments must be made, ensure they are properly invoiced and a receipt is supplied.

Accounts Receivable

- Ensure correct procedures are followed.
- Do not process off-system invoices.
- Ensure all invoices have the correct VAT coding.

Contractors

- Any wage payments outside of payroll must be expressly approved.
- Where tax is required to be deducted at the source this must be done.
- Payments to contractors should only be made in strict accordance with company policies.
- Cash payments should not be made. If they are, invoices and receipts must be present.
- Any tax related withholdings must be deducted and recorded.
- Payments without deductions should only be made if there is a reasonable expectation that the recipient will meet their tax obligations.

Our clients

GDUK Door Solutions Ltd is committed to the following principles:

- Our relationship with our clients is built on honesty, integrity, mutual trust and a commitment to professionalism.
- Our clients expect us to give the best possible advice and work in their best possible interest.
- Tax evasion is antithetical to who we are as a company and goes against every fibre of our dedication to professionalism in our business.
- We firmly believe that any action which would breach tax laws or the Criminal Finances Act is not in the best interest of our clients.
- The advice we give our clients we would give to ourselves and we endeavour to ensure all advice we give on tax matters is consistent with the law and with HMRC guidance.
- Neither our company or any person associated with our business will give advice to a client that would result in a breach of the Criminal Finances Act, either for [enter company name] or our client.
- We do not condone, or support tax evasion and we will not facilitate, give advice or in any way assist our clients to commit tax evasion offences.
- We will not support or work with clients who seek to criminally evade taxes, wherever in the world the tax is owed.

Our commitment

GDUK Door Solutions Ltd is committed to the following principles:

- Our business is carried out fairly, honestly, and openly in every part of our work.
- Our values inform everything we do.
- We will never sell any product or service where we know or suspect that any aspect of the transaction is being misused, abused or otherwise corrupted for the purposes of tax evasion
- We will never buy any product or service from any supplier where it is known or suspected that any aspect of the transaction is being misused, abused or otherwise corrupted for the purposes of tax evasion.
- We will immediately terminate any agreement or business relationship as soon as our company learns of or suspects tax evasion may be taking place.
- We will not progress any business opportunity where there is any suspicion that any aspect of it may involve tax evasion.
